Sixty-fifth session
Agenda items 13 and 115

Resolution adopted by the General Assembly

[without reference to a Main Committee (A/65/L.71)]

65/7. Review of the United Nations peacebuilding architecture

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 60/180 of 20 December 2005, in particular paragraph 27 thereof,

Reaffirming the importance of the peacebuilding work carried out by the United Nations and the need for sustained support and adequate resources for this work,

Recognizing the role of the Peacebuilding Commission as a dedicated intergovernmental advisory body to address the needs of countries emerging from conflict towards sustainable peace,

1. Welcomes the report submitted by the co-facilitators entitled "Review of the United Nations peacebuilding architecture",[1] which is based on extensive consultations with the United Nations membership and other stakeholders;

2. Requests all relevant United Nations actors to take forward, within their mandates and as appropriate, the recommendations of the report, with the aim of further improving the effectiveness of the Peacebuilding Commission;

3. Recognizes that the peacebuilding work of the United Nations requires sustained support and adequate resources to meet the challenges;

4. Requests the Peacebuilding Commission to reflect in its annual reports progress made in taking forward the relevant recommendations of the report;

5. Calls for a further comprehensive review five years after the adoption of the present resolution following the procedure set out in paragraph 27 of resolution 60/180;
